Bioethics Centre
University of Cape Town

Should Covid-19 vaccination be mandatory?

Tuesday 26 October 2021

Neuroscience Institute Lecture Theatre

09h30
Welcome

09h40
Professor David Benatar (Philosophy & Bioethics, UCT)
"Should Covid-19 vaccinations be mandatory?"

10h10
Professor Thomas Scriba (Institute of Infectious Diseases and Molecular Medicine, UCT)
"Does COVID-19 vaccination reduce transmission of SARS-CoV-2?"

10h30
Dr Marvin Hsiao (Medical Virology, UCT & National Health Laboratory Service)
"Vaccination and the emergence of variants: theories and reality".

10h50
Professor Anthony Butler (Political Studies, UCT)
Public policy considerations against vaccine mandates.

11h10
Discussion

12h00
Close