

Bioethics Centre
University of Cape Town

Bioethics Symposium

Monday 29 July 2019

Wolfson Pavilion Lecture Theatre

09h00

Welcome

09h05 to 10h00

Professor Charles Weijer, Philosophy, Western University, London, Ontario, Canada.
“The ethical challenges of “real world” randomized controlled trials.”

10h00 to 10h45

Jessica du Toit, Philosophy, University of Cape Town.
“In the name of science: animal appellations and best practice.”

10h45 to 11h15

Refreshments

11h15 to 12h00

Dr Elisa Galgut, Philosophy, University of Cape Town.
“Conflict of Interest and Structural Speciesism in Animal Research Ethics”

12h00 to 13h00

Professor Charles Weijer, Philosophy, Western University, London, Ontario, Canada.
“Who shall live? The use of functional MRI in the intensive care unit for prognostication after serious brain injury.”

13h00 to 13h05

Closing