

Faculty of Health Sciences

Bioethics Day

28 July 2011

Programme

09h30 – 09h35

Welcome

Session 1: Priority setting in health care (Chair: Dr Lesley Henley)

09h35 – 0950

Prof. Solomon Benatar (Bioethics Centre, UCT)

Priority Setting: rationale and methods.

09h50 – 10h10

Prof. Brian Rayner (Division of Nephrology & Hypertension, UCT)

UCT/GSH Renal Dialysis Policy.

10h10 – 10h40

Theodore Fleischer JD (Bioethics Centre, UCT)

From ethics to law in priority setting.

10h40 – 11h15

Discussion

11h15 – 11h45

Tea

Session 2: Kidney sales (Chair: Prof. David Benatar)

11h45 – 12h15

Jessica du Toit (Philosophy Department, UCT)

Should kidney sales be legal?

12h15 – 12h45

Discussion

12h45 – 13h30

Lunch

Session 3: Professionalism (Chair: Prof. John Anthony)

13h30 – 14h00

Kamlin Ekambaram (6th Year MBChB student, UCT)

Facebook and Professional Face: Do the new social media pose a threat to medical professionalism?

14h00 – 14h30

Discussion

14h30 – 15h00

Prof. David Benatar (Philosophy Department & Bioethics Centre, UCT)

Neglected threats to confidentiality

15h00 – 15h30

Discussion

15h30 – 15h40

Closing