

Reflecting on Language Activism in South Africa – A Symposium

15 November 2019, 15.00 to 18.00 pm, CAS Gallery

Refreshments will be served

Organized by the A.C. Jordan Chair in African Studies and the Linguistics Section (AXL), funded by the AW Mellon Foundation

Speakers (in alphabetical order):

June Bam-Hutchison, Moshumee Dewoo, Zuziwe Msomi,
Lindokuhle Patiwe, Chanel van der Merwe, Pule Welch

Program of the Symposium

June-Bam-Hutchison

Intergenerational 'mother tongue' trauma in South Africa in the case of Khoekhoegowab: implications for a critically reflective multilingual higher education policy

Moshumee Dewoo, Zuziwe Msomi

Language, Power and Freedom: reflections on teaching a third year course

Lindokuhle Patiwe

Language as an archive

Chanel van der Merwe

Language policy as lived experience: a proposal

Pule Welch

To be confirmed