

APPLYING FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDIES AT MICHAELIS

A step-by-step guide

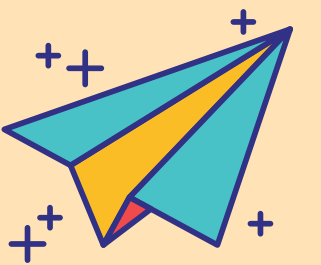

1 APPLY ONLINE TO UCT

The Michaelis School of Fine Art is part of the University of Cape Town and all applicants are required to submit an online application for assessment and review by the Faculty of Humanities. The applicant's personal information is recorded as well as all relevant academic information is completed in order to determine whether the minimum requirements have been met. Online applications can be made here.

2 FIND OUT WHAT'S REQUIRED

Each qualification has its own set of required documents which you will need to supply when applying. You can find the table of requirements, here.

3 SUBMIT REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Submit all supporting documents as stated in the table above via the online student portal. Please ensure that the documents are correctly named. example: John Smith SMTJOH001 - Writing Sample

4 APPLY FOR FUNDING

Michaelis is proud to support postgraduate students who are from historically disadvantaged backgrounds through the Siyakhula Scholarship fund. Applicants are considered on a case by case basis depending on the availability of funds. You can apply for the scholarship here. For more information on funding available to postgraduate students, and how to apply, click here.

5 TRACK YOUR APPLICATION

Once you have applied, you can track your application status using log-in details provided to you in the initial application process. It is important for you to check your email regularly, as you will be notified if any further documentation or information is required.

6 SOME HELPFUL LINKS

- Michaelis School of Fine Art website
- UCT Postgraduate webpage
- UCT Postgraduate Hub
- International Office